About The University of Strathclyde

The University of Strathclyde was founded in 1796 and has a rich history of teaching and innovation. Located in the center of Glasgow, Scotland's largest city, we are home to students from over 100 countries. Winners of seven Times Higher Education Awards, including University of the Year 2012 and Business School of the Year 2016, we have a world-wide reputation for teaching and research excellence.

Conference Venue: The Technology and Innovation Centre

The Technology and Innovation Centre, University of Strathclyde is a multi-award-winning UK university situated in the very heart of Glasgow.

In the city centre, next to the Merchant City, both of which are great locations for sightseeing, shopping and socialising alongside the moot. National Geographic named Glasgow as one of its 'Best of the World' destinations, while Rough Guide readers have voted Glasgow the world's friendliest city!

Doctoral Student Consortium on Wednesday, 12 June 2019

Doctoral Student Consortium (DSC) includes a panel session with distinguished scholars discussing the latest advances in research and offering career advice. The afternoon breakout sessions give participants the opportunity to present job market papers or dissertation proposals and receive feedback from the faculty and panelists. Accepted participants receive complimentary conference registration. There is no fee for the DSC application. Applications due Friday, 15 February 2019
